Research Lab:

Modern Methods and Technologies in Foreign Language and Literature Teaching

Mission and Objectives:

1. Organizing scientific and methodological support for foreign language educators in regional higher and secondary education institutions.
2. Facilitating research focused on current issues in foreign language learning and instruction.
3. Enhancing professional training and development for future and practicing foreign language teachers.

Participation in International Projects

- LATILL develops and evaluates digital tools to help German language teachers find level-appropriate, thematic reading materials for diverse classroom contexts.
- DLL (Deutsch Lehren Lernen) is a Goethe-Institut professional development program for German language educators. Based on current research in GFL (German as a Foreign Language), it integrates an innovative "Action Research" approach to teacher training.

«Foreign Languages Club» Workshop

1. Target Audience: Humanities students requiring additional support.
2. Focus: Improving foundational skills in foreign language communication.
3. Goal: Bridging the gap in basic language proficiency.
